Welcome to Flyer Basketball. As the head coach at the University of Dayton, I have seen the Flyers grow into one of the most exciting teams in the Atlantic 10 Conference and I expect the 2006-07 season to be no different.

We compete in one of the best college basketball venues in the nation. UD Arena, which underwent a major renovation in 2002, features suites and loge seats as well as the Time Warner Cable Flight Deck. Attached to UD Arena is the Donoher Basketball Center, which is a state-of-the-art facility, dedicated to both basketball programs at Dayton. The NBA style locker rooms, film editing room, theatre, and the weight room are just a small indication of the support the University of Dayton provides our program as we aspire to be champions.

The home of Flyer basketball will also continue to play host to some of the best teams in the nation this spring. UD Arena will play host to 2007 and 2010 NCAA Women's Regionals while continuing to be the exclusive home of the NCAA Men's Opening Round game through 2010. Many teams have played at UD Arena as part of their run to the Final Four including the 1985 Villanova men, 2003 UConn women, and the 2006 George Mason men.

Our 2006-07 edition of Dayton women's basketball is poised to continue the trend as one of the most improved teams in the nation. From my first season on campus (2003-04) to last season the Flyers have shown the second best improvement in wins of any program nationally. That success can be traced to an exciting style of play and an outstanding family atmosphere.

Fans of UD basketball can expect us to push the ball up the court and challenge opposing defenses for 40 minutes each and every game. Our fast paced tempo will create more scoring and a brand of basketball that is exciting to watch. Whether on the court, in the locker room, or hanging out on campus, you will see that our team is passionate about basketball as well as their academic pursuits and volunteering in the community. They are a close knit family of which everyone can be a part.

Everyone in the Dayton basketball family is looking forward to your support throughout the 2006-07 season. We hope that you will join us for a game at UD Arena or follow us online at www.DaytonFlyers.com, which is filled with stats, box scores and information on all of our players as well as live stats and audio of most games this season. We hope you join us in our quest to win the Atlantic 10 Championship.

Yours in hoops,

James John

ATLANTIC 10 CHAMPIONSHIP - MARCH 2-5

Over 1,600 fans per game watched the Flyers at UD Arena last season, an average that led the Atlantic 10 Conference in attendance.

The Flyer Faithful was treated to an 8-5 record by Dayton at home in 2005-06 including wins in six of its first seven games.

"My coaches and players laugh at me because I always say that I get chills every time I take the floor at UD Arena and I do. Our administration and everyone connected to UD that so much pride in every aspect of the athletics programs. That is why we are hosting another Women's Regional. We are among the leaders in NCAA history in hosting NCAA Tournament games. I have the best job in the country."

FIRST CLASS FACILITIES The Donoher Basketball Center, named for UD's winningest basketball coach Don Donoher, is a state-of-the-art structure that elevates both the University of Dayton's men's and women's basketball programs to the next level. Technology is at the very core of the Center's distinctiveness. An ESPN-style, six-screen theater wall just inside the entrance makes it crystal clear from the initial impression that UD understands the necessity of bringing current technology to bear on competitive performance. One of UD's most prominent alumni, high-tech entrepreneur John McHale, contributed more than a third of the Center's $4.3 million cost. The name is a nod to the past; the Center itself is clear evidence of the University's intention to stake out a leadership position at the intersection of college basketball and technology to propel the Flyers to championship performance.

Hard-working. Compassionate. Dedicated. These are just a few words that come to mind when talking with Jim Jabir. On April 8, 2003, the University of Dayton introduced Jabir as the women's basketball team's eighth head coach and first male head coach in the history of the program.

The Flyers have been one of the most improved teams in the nation under the direction of Jabir. UD had the fourth best single-season turnaround in the nation in the 2004-05 season with an improvement of nine wins over the previous campaign. Jabir and Dayton continued the trend in 2005-06 with an improvement of five more wins, giving UD the second best improvement over a two-year span in the nation.

"I am going to be the hardest working coach out there," states Jabir. "I want people to fear playing the University of Dayton."

The 2005-06 season also saw two different Flyers earn Atlantic 10 All-Conference accolades as UD finished sixth in a conference that sent five teams to postseason play. Dayton also advanced to the Quarterfinals of the A-10 Tournament and finished with a winning record for the first time in five years. Jabir came to UD after spending one season as an assistant at Colorado. In his last season at CU, the Buffaloes (24-8) advanced to the Sweet Sixteen of the NCAA Tournament and were ranked as high as 23rd in the ESPN/Coaches' Poll and 24th in the Associated Press Poll. Jabir was primarily responsible for the development of CU's post players, including the Buffaloes' first-ever First Team All-Big 12 selection.

Jabir had been a head coach for 16 seasons prior to coaching at CU with an all-time career mark of 220-223. His broad coaching experience ranges from the Big East Conference to the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference.

The Brooklyn, NY native began his coaching career as an assistant at Nazareth College (1984-85) and at Buffalo State (1985-86). Jabir was instrumental in leading the Bengals to a 23-3 slate, the SUNYAC title, a 22-game winning streak, an NCAA regional tournament appearance and a national ranking (No. 3) during the 1985-86 season.

After one season as an assistant, Jabir became the head coach at Buffalo State during the 1986-87 season at the age of 24. He led that team to a 14-11 record and guided the Bengals to the State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC) championship and an appearance in the Division III Tournament.

Jabir matriculated to Siena College from Buffalo State, where he served as the head coach of the Saints for three seasons (1987-90) and compiled a 50-29 record. Jabir's teams posted three consecutive winning seasons. In his first season, Jabir was responsible for the development of Siena's first-ever Freshman All-American.

After his stint at Siena, Jabir spent six years at Marquette University becoming one of the most successful coaches in the history of the program, elevating the Golden Eagles into the national spotlight. After posting a 7-20 record during his inaugural year (1990-91) at Marquette, Jabir guided his team to four consecutive winning seasons, two 20-plus winning seasons and three post-season appearances, including back-to-back bids to the NCAA Tournament. In 1994-95, Marquette won the Great Midwest Conference Tournament, the first tournament championship in school history. This followed the 1993-94 campaign in which Jabir compiled a program-best 22-7 overall record and its first trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Before his stint at Colorado, Jabir was at the helm of Providence College for six seasons, 1996-2002. During his last three years, the Friars' record improved with each season and in his final season, the Friars finished 13-15 overall and eighth of 14 schools in the prestigious Big East, its highest finish ever since the Big East went to a one division format.

Jabir, tabbed by Basketball Times as one of the Top 10 up-and-coming coaches in the country, was a two-time Reebok/Great Midwest Conference Coach of the Year. Jabir is a 1984 graduate of Nazareth College in Rochester, New York, where he received a degree in English. He also earned his Masters degree in Student Personnel Administration from Buffalo State in 1986. Jabir and his wife Kathy have three children, Lauren, Shane and Jackson.

2005-06 SEASON IN REVIEW

A summer trip to Europe, a sixth-place finish in the A-10 standings and a win in the opening round of the Atlantic 10 Championships all highlighted one of the most successful seasons in the recent history of Flyer women's basketball in 2005-06.

The team began its preparations for the season with a 10-day tour of Eastern Europe, playing games in the Czech Republic, Slovakia and Austria. The Flyers lost their opening game to USK Prague (63-40), which went on to represent the Czech Republic in the World University Games later that week in Turkey. UD then went on to beat BZ Czech Coal from Strakonice, Czech Republic (72-60) and Cevakata Vologda from Slovakia (73-63) as well as UBBC Hergozenberg (85-63) and UAB Vienna from Austria (94-37). Along the way, the Flyers had the opportunity to visit historic sites and experience a foreign culture while building a better team chemistry.

Once the season began, Dayton women's basketball team continued its trend as one of the most improved teams in the nation by recording a 17-12 overall record and a sixth place finish in a 14-team Atlantic 10 Conference that sent five teams to postseason play. The Flyers also advanced to the Second Round of the Atlantic 10 Tournament for the first time in six seasons behind a pair of All A-10 selections in First Team pick Cara Wright and Second Teamer Jennifer Strong.

Wright was honored as the Atlantic 10 Player of the Week four times during the 2005-06 season including four straight weeks during the month of December to become the first women's player in conference history to be named the award winner in four consecutive weeks since the 2001-02 season. Overall, Wright tallied 15 double-doubles on the season and finished as the only player in the A-10 to average a double-double on the year with a conference-leading 10.2 rebounds per game and the third most points per game at 16.2. She was also tops in the A-10 in field goal percentage (.520) and third in blocks (1.62 bpg).

Strong was among the best in the Conference at 11.9 points per game and ranked 10th among non-seniors in the A-10. She started all 29 games and leads UD with 72 consecutive starts entering the 2006-07 season. The forward scored in double figures during 20 of her final 24 games including a then career-best 24 against Xavier on Jan. 19. Among UD's best ever in career scoring, three-point shots and minutes played, Strong had her most memorable finish to a game in Dayton's 79-77 win over Toledo at the Tulane Basketball Classic on Dec. 28. With the score tied and just seven seconds left in regulation, Strong inbounded the ball from the sideline and posted up on the right block. She received an entry pass and was fouled while trying to shoot a layup. The Flyer veteran drained both free throws with 2.6 seconds left on the clock as the Flyers beat the Rockets for their first of two wins in New Orleans and taking home the Championship of the Tulane Classic.

The trip to New Orleans proved to be an eye-opening experience for the Flyers both on the court and off. Members of the team took time to visit areas damaged by Hurricanes Katrina and Rita including one of the hardest hit areas of the "Crescent City" just next to the 17th street levee. All of the members of the Dayton team were affected by the sights from the aftermath of one of the worst natural disasters in U.S. history including guard Ashley Armstrong.

"I couldn't believe that one area can be so devastated and peoples' lives changed forever and then on the other side of the highway we are playing a basketball game," Armstrong commented. "We are in an arena playing a basketball game while across the street people are in their houses trying to recover. It really put things into perspective for me."

The pair of wins in New Orleans capped the most successful beginning to a season in Flyer basketball history. UD had played its way to an 8-3 record in non-conference play which was the most wins ever by UD in its Division I history before New Year's Day. The eight victories were second most to only the 1983-84 squad which had 10 wins by Jan. 1 en route to an NCAA Division II National Semifinal berth.

One reason for the success was a surge in scoring from a fast-paced Flyer offense. Dayton averaged 64.4 points per game throughout the season, which was an increase of over six points per game over the previous season. UD finished the 2005-06 campaign ranked third in the A-10 in scoring, second in assists (16.00 apg) and fourth in field goal percentage (.421). Dayton also proved to be a threat from long range with the fourth best three-point shooting mark (.343) while extending a streak of at least one made three-point shot in 159 consecutive games, which is the best in the Atlantic 10 Conference.

After leaving a warm climate in Louisiana, the team returned home to prepare for a trip to Amherst, Mass. and the start of Atlantic 10 Conference play against Massachusetts on Tuesday. Jan. 3. However, the start of conference play for the Flyers hit a snag when tornadoes struck Chicago and New England was hit by snow and freezing rain. The combination forced the game to be delayed until Wednesday and setup a stretch of three games in five days to begin the A-10 schedule.

UD overcame the adversity to win its conference opener for the first time in three seasons with a 57-51 victory over the Minutewomen. Nikki Oakland controlled the first half for the Flyers with 13 points while Jennifer Strong finished with 15 overall to lead all players as the Dayton defense held UMass without a made three-point shot and just 35.3 percent shooting on the night.

From there, UD traveled to the nation's capital to face George Washington. The Flyers played even with the heavily-favored Colonials for the first 20 minutes and went into the locker room at halftime tied at 34-all on the strength of 12 points from Wright. Dayton eventually fell to GW, 75-64, despite 25 points from Wright and 15 by Strong while connecting on nearly 40 percent of their shots from the field.

Dayton returned home and closed out its most grueling stretch of the season with a 95-73 rout of Saint Louis at UD Arena. The win marked the first time that an Atlantic 10 team had scored 95 points all season and began a three-game winning streak for the Flyers that included victories at Duquesne and home against Richmond.

UD finished the Atlantic 10 Conference schedule with an 8-8 record, which was just one win shy of its most conference wins ever. The Flyers then earned the sixth seed in the Atlantic 10 Championship hosted at Saint Joseph's University in Philadelphia. Dayton would face off with Rhode Island in the opening round, a team the Flyers had defeated 62-51 earlier in the season at UD Arena.

The matchup proved to be the most physical game of the Tournament with the teams combining for 54 fouls and 61 free throws which were both just shy of A-10 Championship records for a single game. The difference proved to be the Flyer defense which held the Rams to 32.2 percent shooting on the night and recorded seven blocks. In contrast, Dayton made almost 50 percent of its shots from the field en route to a 71-63 victory. Wright posted a double-double with 26 points and 13 rebounds while Strong finished with 13 points and Karah Cloxton added six assists as UD won its opening game in the A-10 Tournament for the first time in four years.

Although Dayton lost to eventual NCAA Tournament participant Temple in front of the Owls' hometown crowd the following night, the 2005-06 season continued to lay the groundwork for a Flyer program on the rise. UD won 17 games for the first time since the outgoing senior class was in kindergarten (1985-86) and the improvement was noted by the Flyer Faithful. UD Arena averaged 1,603 fans per game for Flyer basketball during the 2005-06 season, which was the most of any team in the Atlantic 10 Conference.

UNIVERSITY OF DAYTON ARENA

As the University of Dayton Arena moves into its middle ages (it turned 36 on December 6, 2005), it only gets better.

In November 2002, the UD Arena re-opened after undergoing a major renovation that had been completed in a swift 10 months. Additions to the UD Arena included suites and loge seats, and the new Time Warner Cable Flight Deck — all overlooking Blackburn Court with a powerful view of all of the action. The Boesch Lounge received a face-lift along with new restrooms and upgraded concessions for the fans. Environmental graphics were added throughout the building that tell the story of the long tradition of Dayton basketball.

Overall, the facility was modernized with an eye to the future while maintaining its steadfast roots as a landmark in the Dayton community. It also remains the crown jewel of the Arena Sports Complex that includes new baseball, football, softball and track facilities for UD's student-athletes, and the first hotel (a brand-new Courtyard By Marriott) built within the Dayton City limits in twenty years.

The Arena, built in 1969 for approximately $4.5 million without the use of public funds, has been a tremendous host site. The Flyers' win over Duquesne on February 17, 1999 was their 500th game at UD Arena and their 350th win at the venue. In the 2002-2003 season, the Flyers won their 400th game at UD Arena, going 17-1 at home, and winning the Atlantic 10 Championship on their home floor. Nationally, the Arena is better known as a host to 20 of the last 37 NCAA Tournaments. That covers 73 games, third all-time behind Kansas City's Municipal Auditorium and Salt Lake City's Huntsman Center.

During the summer of 1997, the University made two moves to forever tie the Arena with two of the greatest names in UD basketball history.

The playing court at UD Arena was named after former Flyer coach Tom Blackburn, and the $4.5 million addition to the Arena was named for former player and coach Don Donoher. The two coaches combined for nearly 800 victories from 1947 to 1989. The playing floor is officially known as 'Tom Blackburn Court at the University of Dayton Arena,' but is referred to as 'Blackburn Court.' Blackburn coached the Flyers from 1947 until his death due to cancer in 1964. Only 58 at the time of his death, Blackburn won 352 games while being bested just 141. When he signed on at UD, the Flyers had just posted a four-win season. Four years later, his team was playing in the championship game of the most prestigious tournament of the day, the National Invitation Tournament.

The addition of the Donoher Basketball Center in 1998 was the first step in placing the facility ahead of its time. The Donoher Basketball Center, an addition to the southwest corner of the Arena, has given the Flyer basketball programs a technologically advanced facility for training, game preparation and recruiting. It now serves as the nerve center for the Flyer basketball programs, housing state-of-the-art conditioning and training rooms, locker rooms, multi-media facilities and team meeting rooms. The locker room layout incorporates an NBA-style design, combining a casually furnished lounge and meeting area within the locker room.

Named for Don Donoher at the urging of John McHale, whose $1.25 million gift to the University initiated the project, the Center's grand debut came on June 28, 1998. The Flyer Faithful turned out 5,000 strong to visit the open house. Donoher, who coached UD to a school-record 437 wins from 1964 to 1989, took UD to the NCAA title game in 1967 and to the NIT title the following year. He led UD to the Sweet 16 in the 1970s and then the Regional Finals in the 1980s. He also won a gold medal at the 1984 Los Angeles Olympics as an assistant coach of the U.S. team (which featured Michael Jordan).

In fact, the NCAA Final Four appearance in 1967 helped convince the UD administration of the need for the Arena. On November 7, 1968, the Rev. Raymond A. Roesch broke ground for the University of Dayton Arena. And with his first shovel of dirt, the then-UD president began a project that would help take college basketball from a game played in small gymnasiums to an event played to thousands of fans in magnificent arenas.

UNIVERSITY OF DAYTON ARENA

A little more than a year after the construction began, UD Arena was a reality. It opened on December 6, 1969, as the Flyers faced Bowling Green. BG's Jim Connally hit the Arena's first shot, followed by Dayton's first hoop, a jumper from Pat Murnen. The Flyers led 39-27 at half and pushed it to 43-27 before a 21-8 BG tear. From there, it was a dogfight. Senior (and future UD Hall of Famer) George Janky, who had 26 points and 15 rebounds, sank a pair of free throws with 29 seconds left to give UD a 72-68 lead. The Falcons' Bob Quayle hit a shot at 0:17 and then stole the inbounds pass and missed a last-second shot which would have sent it into overtime. Afterward, Jim Gottschall said, "Those two free throws George made were really something. Let's face it ... he won the game." The dedication of the Arena came at halftime of the 79-75 win over DePaul on January 17. At halftime, Ohio Governor James Rhodes told the sell-out crowd, "The Arena is an example of the University of Dayton's progressive attitude and showed it is one of the nation's leading universities in accomplishing this arena."

In the 30+ years that have passed, more than 14 million customers have witnessed events in UD Arena. In a typical year, the Arena will host more than a half-million people at more than 100 events. The level of talent that has appeared on the floor at the Arena is staggering. The list includes the likes of Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, LeBron James, Elton John, Michael Jordan, Elvis, Isiah Thomas, Adolph Rupp, David Robinson, Aerosmith, Dean Smith, Baryshnikov, Larry Bird, Johnny Cash, Magic Johnson, and Tony Gwynn (playing basketball for San Diego State). The list goes on and on.

One of a generation of great basketball arenas built in the late 1960s and early 1970s, the 13,409-seat home of Flyer basketball was the brainchild of university movers Roesch, the Rev. Charles Collins, Brother Elmer Lackner and then-Flyer Director of Athletics Thomas J. Frericks. Planning began in 1967 amid a tremendous demand for tickets to Flyer home games. Home for the games at that time was the University of Dayton Fieldhouse, which was renamed the Thomas J. Frericks Athletic and Convocation Center in 1991. Built in 1950, the then-Fieldhouse held 5,808 fans and was sold out for its last 195 Flyer games.

The Arena made NCAA men's basketball history again in March 2001 by hosting 10 post-season games in eight days, a feat neverbefore done in college basketball. While other venues have hosted NCAA games and games of the National Invitation Tournament in the same year, no venue or school had ever done both simultaneously. And while UD was a gracious host to nine NCAA teams, the NIT was not kind to UD opponents as the Flyers advanced to the quarterfinals for the 10th time in 19 NIT appearances.

When the NCAA Tournament expanded to 65 teams for the first time in 2001, the NCAA placed the first-ever Opening-Round Game in Dayton, featuring the tournament's 64th and 65th seeded teams, Northwestern State and Winthrop. The Opening Round was such a success in Dayton that the NCAA declared UD Arena as the Opening Round's home from 2001 through 2010. The NCAA First and Second Rounds return to the Arena in 2009 and with the completion of that series, UD Arena will pass Madison Square Garden and become the third-most prolific NCAA Tournament venue. In addition, UD was also selected to host the Women's Basketball Regional Final in 2007 and 2010.

UD ARENA & THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

There are many reasons why the NCAA Tournament Committee has called on the University of Dayton Arena to be a host for so many NCAA Tournament games:

- The University had constructed a new (and large) arena in 1969, making it one of the most attractive venues in the country.
- The hometown Flyers had been so good for so long that the college basketball fans in the Miami Valley were among the most knowledgeable and supportive in the country.
- Dayton's Director of Athletics Thomas J. Frericks was an influential member of the tournament committee and a visionary regarding how to host a tournament.
- After hosting so many times, the NCAA often sent those chosen to host to Dayton, to witness the model of how to host the tournament.

Pick whatever reason you want, but there is certainly no argument that the UD Arena has been the site of more memorable NCAA Tournament moments than any facility in history. Among the Arena memories...

Notre Dame's Austin Carr scored 35 points against Ohio University -- in the first half. He added 26 more after intermission and holds the single-game mark to this day.

Adolph Rupp's Kentucky Wildcats fell to Florida State in 1972, ending his amazing career that resulted in 875 victories.

Kentucky handed Bobby Knight's Hoosiers their only loss in a two-year, 64-game span in what was called college basketball's greatest game until Christian Laettner eliminated UK in Philadelphia in 1992

The world was introduced to a magical freshman from Michigan State in 1978. But the Spartans title would wait a year as soon-to-be champ Kentucky knocked out Magic Johnson, handing him his only NCAA Tourney loss.

Mark Aguirre's agony as he gripped the ball after it had gone through the net to beat his top-ranked DePaul Blue Demons in his final collegiate game — a loss to Saint Joseph's.

Indiana trouncing the Maryland Terrapins en route to winning the 1981 NCAA Title with sophomore Isiah Thomas leading the way in his final collegiate season.

In a simple 1984 play-in game, referee Mickey Crowley, former Supervisor of Atlantic 10 Men's Basketball Officials, ran to the ESPN announcing position to watch a replay to determine whom to send to the foul line.

One amazing day in 1985: Fairleigh Dickinson nearly beat powerful Michigan, Villanova started its dream run to the NCAA Championship (against the Dayton Flyers no less), Len Bias and Maryland stole one from Ron Harper and the Miami Redskins and David Robinson jumped into the nation's conscious as Navy decimated LSU.

One year later, another amazing freshman took to the floor in Kansas' Danny Manning while Michigan State's Scott Skiles fought and clawed his way to the regional while making a remarkable around-the-body pass on a breakaway.

Ohio State, led by Jimmy Jackson and hometown hero Mark Baker (a Dunbar High School grad), knocked out Georgia Tech and then Jackson announced that Kenny Anderson was aging pro.

After going 0-3 in NCAA Tournament Games at the UD Arena, the 1995 Miami Redskins shocked the Arizona Wildcats behind the dreadlocked Devin Davis.

The North Carolina State women knocking off the top two seeds in the East -- UConn and Old Dominion -- to advance to the 1998 Final

George Mason became everyone's favorite underdog by knocking off two recent national champions -- Michigan State (2000) and North Carolina (2005) -- in Dayton on the way to the 2006 Final Four.

In 2006, UD Arena became just the third venue to host 70 Men's NCAA Tournament Games -- joining Kansas City's Municipal Auditorium and Salt Lake City's Huntsman Center.

When the NCAA tournament field was expanded to 65 teams in 2000, UD Arena hosted the first-ever Opening Round Game. The Opening Round game was such a success in Dayton that the NCAA elected to hold the game at UD Arena through 2010. The 2007 Opening Round Game will be played on March 12.

In such a short time, the Opening Round Game has become one of the most exciting and entertaining games of the NCAA Tournament. In 2002, Prosper Karangwa of Siena scored 31 points to lead his Siena Saints to an 81-77 win over Alcorn State and legendary coach Davey L. Whitney. The 2003 NCAA Tournament was known for its close games and exciting finishes, and the Opening Round set the tone as UNC Asheville and Texas Southern found themselves knotted at 75-75 at the end of regulation. UNC Asheville, making its first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance, came away with a 92-84 win in overtime.

In 2003, the Women's NCAA Tournament returned to Dayton for the East Regional. Not only did the four teams who visited UD Arena feature the defending National Champion Connecticut Huskies, but also the four previous National Champions: Connecticut, who also won the title in 2000, 2001 Champion Notre Dame, and Purdue, who won it all in 1999. Connecticut survived the bracket of champions and went on to take the 2003 National Championship.

The women's regional will return to the Arena in 2007 (March 25 and 27), and again in 2010. The men's First and Second Rounds are scheduled for the Arena in 2009.

These fans are hoop junkies, even if the Flyers aren't on the floor." The following year, ESPN personality Mike Tirico added "There's no better basketball town in this country than Dayton, Ohio."

Thomas J. Frericks, who became a member of the UD Athletics
Hall of Fame in 1976, left an indelible impression on the Flyer
Athletics program. No mention of University of Dayton tournament appearances would be complete without acknowledging the contributions of Mr. Frericks, who served as UD's director of athletics from 1964 to 1992.

Not only should he be considered for the University's involvement in tournaments, but for his contributions to the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship.

Mr. Frericks was an innovator who helped guide UD Athletics from a time when collegiate athletic departments were low-budget operations to the multi-million dollar budgets of today. Through all the changes, one thing remained constant, because of Frericks' dedication, UD became known for integrity and credibility.

Highlights of his tenure included UD's second-place finish in the 1967 NCAA Men's Basketball Championship, and the construction in 1969 of the $4.5 million University of Dayton Arena, which has now hosted 65 NCAA Tournament Games (62 men, three women).

As a member of the Men's Basketball Committee, Frericks was an integral part of developing the tournament to the great American sporting event, "March Madness," it is today. He was on the five-member team from the Basketball Committee that negotiated the seven-year, $1 billion television contract with CBS Sports. Mr. Frericks was slated to be the Chair of the Basketball Committee starting in 1992, but he lost his battle with cancer on Jan. 31, 1992, before presiding over any championship.

Fifteen days prior to his passing, the University had rededicated the University of Dayton Fieldhouse as the Thomas J. Frericks Athletic and Convocation Center. It serves as a constant reminder, fittingly, in a building where he attended classes, practiced and played as a young man and transformed UD athletic fortunes as athletic director.

DR. DANIEL J. CURRANUniversity President

Daniel J. Curran is president of the University of Dayton, recognized as a top-tier national university and one of the 10 best Catholic universities in the country. The Philadelphia native became the University of Dayton's 18th president and first lay leader on July 1, 2002.

With a renewed contract through 2012, Dr. Curran continues to guide the University of Dayton through transformational times. A new master plan will shape development on a campus that now spans to the Great Miami River. A new strategic plan A Vision of Excellence, will focus an strengthening the school's strategic plan, A Vision of Excellence, will focus on strengthening the school's distinct Catholic and Marianist identity, diversifying the student body, internationalizing the curriculum, hiring nationally prominent faculty and building upon a learning-living environment that supports academic excellence.

Under Dr. Curran's leadership, the University of Dayton has enjoyed record applications, record sponsored research dollars and tremendous momentum.

In the past four years, the University started new exchange programs in China, established centers of excellence in nanotechnology and fuels and combustion, opened a science center, built a sports complex, launched the nation's first accelerated law curriculum and started a doctor of physical therapy program. In addition, UD opened the Dayton Early College Academy, a public high school on campus that prepares first-generation college students to earn a high school diploma and college credits at the same time. In the residential arena, UD constructed two facilities that combine living and learning — Marianist Hall, a residence hall with learning spaces, and ArtStreet, an imaginative housing and arts education complex in the University neighborhood. RecPlex, an ultramodern fitness and recreation complex, opened in 2006.

As a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association's Division I board of directors, Dr. Curran helped shape academic reforms designed to improve the graduation rate of student-athletes. He has been named to its executive committee and Division I-AA/I-AAA Presidential Advisory Group. His other national board memberships include the Higher Learning Commission, part of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools.

In the Dayton region, he focuses on economic development and high-tech issues. He chairs the Wright Brothers Institute board and serves on nearly two dozen others, including the Dayton Development Coalition, Dayton Area Chamber of Commerce, National Composite Center and Miami Valley Research Foundation. In the state, the governor tapped him for the Ohio Aerospace and Advisory Council.

Colleagues praise him for his forward-thinking approach, dedication to the Marianist mission, energy, approachability and strong commitment to social justice.

A sociologist by training, Dr. Curran spent 23 years in various administrative and faculty positions at Saint Joseph's University in Philadelphia, most recently as executive vice president and vice president for academic affairs. He's a noted scholar in criminology, juvenile justice and social problems, with a deep interest in international issues.

His passion for social justice runs deep. At his presidential installation ceremony in April 2003, he noted that a Catholic university must be "a force for social change. As a community of learners and educators, we must analyze the causes of social injustice and educate professionals with a conscience."

He serves on the board of the Ohio Children's Defense Fund and has served on the boards of Saint Joseph's Carpenter Society, a nonprofit organization that purchases and rehabilitates homes in Camden, N.J., and Philadelphia's Summerbridge Program, a college-prep program for minority middle-school students. For six years, he traveled with students to Tijuana, Mexico, on a service-learning project. He received the 2002 Eternal Flame Award, an international award given for "exceptional contribution to the field of Holocaust education."

Most of Dr. Curran's research has focused on ways to address social inequality. His prolific scholarly record includes eight books, most of which he co-authored with his wife, Claire M. Renzetti, former chair of the sociology department at Saint Joseph's University. Theories of Crime: A Reader was published in 2003 and is now available in Polish and Czech. The two are working on updated editions of Women, Men and Society: The Sociology of Gender and Social Problems: Society in Crisis. In 1993, the University of Pittsburgh Press published his Dead Laws for Dead Men, a historical analysis of coal mine health and safety legislation.

Before becoming a vice president at Saint Joseph's University, Dr. Curran served as dean of the College of Arts and Sciences for four years. He started his academic career there in 1979 with a series of faculty positions in the department of sociology, including chair from 1988 to 1992. As a professor of sociology, he has taught courses in criminology, social problems, juvenile justice and white-collar crime. Dr. Curran also served as president of the faculty senate at Saint Joseph's University.

In 1990, he served as a Fulbright Senior Scholar at the University of Melbourne in Australia. He held a concurrent professorship at Nanjing University in China.

Dr. Curran earned a Ph.D. from the University of Delaware in 1980 after receiving a master's degree from Temple University in 1978 and a bachelor's degree from Saint Joseph's University in 1973 — all in sociology. Dr. Curran and his wife, Claire, have two sons, Sean and Aidan.

TED KISSELLVice President/ Director of Athletics

Ted Kissell begins his 15th year as Vice President/Director of Athletics at the University of Dayton. Under Kissell's leadership University of Dayton Athletics has been transformed into a widely-successful broadbased program.

As Kissell has implemented his strategic plan, championships have followed. In the last nine years (1998-2006), UD has had 23 conference championships and 17 teams reach the post-season. In the nine years prior to that (1989-98) the Flyers only had seven conference championships and one tournament appearance.

Only the sixth AD in school history, Kissell is charged with the oversight of 17 intercollegiate athletics programs, the University of Dayton Arena and the surrounding Arena Sports Complex. As a University Vice President, Kissell serves on the University's President's Council and is a member of the President's Cabinet. Beyond the University, he is a member of the A-10 Executive Committee.

A vital component of the Flyer master plan is a men's basketball program that is in consistent contention for a post-season bid. The progress of the men's basketball program in the last seven years toward greater national prominence has been marked by three NCAA bids, two NIT bids and an average of more than 20 wins a season. Annual basketball-related revenues have risen from $1.8 million to $8.8 million since Kissell came to UD in 1992.

The success of the men's basketball program has provided resources and allowed the annual operating budget to grow nearly $10 million to support Kissell's strategy of building broad-based competitive results throughout Flyer sports programs. Women's soccer has earned five NCAA tournament appearances including a berth in the "Sweet Sixteen" in 2001 and has won eight of the last ten A-10 regular season championships. Women's volleyball has earned three consecutive NCAA tournament and has won seven A-10 titles (regular season and/or tournament). Men's soccer has won four A-10 titles, and the baseball team's record for wins in a season was 25 after the 2000 campaign — since then UD has won at least 30 games four times.

Kissell has also invested in UD football to maintain its position as the model for Division I non-scholarship football programs. A grass practice facility and charter flights have advanced UD's competitive position. UD football has gained nationwide attention with 29 consecutive winning seasons and won outright or shared the Pioneer Football League championship eight of the 13 years the league has been in existence. The Flyers also won the 2002 NCAA Division I-AA Mid-Major National Championship.

Strong performance on the field has not come at the expense of a high level of performance in the classroom. The Flyers' combined cumulative grade point average has steadily risen during Kissell's tenure. Flyer student-athletes currently carry a cumulative GPA over 3.0.

UD has had 26 Academic All-Americans in the last six years. Only Nebraska, Rensselaer Poly and Rice had more. The Flyers had three Arthur Ashe Scholar-Athletes in 2005-06, the most in school history. Dayton is consistently among the league leaders in placing student-athletes on the Atlantic 10 Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll, even though the Flyers participate in fewer A-10 sports than all but one school. UD had the most players on the PFL Academic Honor Roll for the fifth straight year in 2005.

Providing strong, positive experiences and support for student-athletes is paramount in developing competitive athletic programs. During the last nine years, the Athletics Division has added full-time staff in the areas of coaching, academic support, strength and conditioning and athletic training.

UD's student-athletes are also educated on the subjects of time management, better nutrition and even public speaking. Travel to away athletics contests has been upgraded across the board to provide the better accommodations and itineraries for athletes to be able to focus on academics while on the road and minimize the amount of class time missed.

A high-water mark of Kissell's administration is the implementation of a gender equity plan that provides men and women student-athletes with equitable opportunities in line with the university's general population. U.S. News & World Report ranks UD in the top 15 in Division I gender equity. Additionally, the Athletics Division has worked with the University to implement an aggressive program to increase minority opportunities for student-athletes.

A key component of Kissell's plan is to upgrade facilities. Development of the Arena Sports Complex (a 25-acre project in full view of 1-75 and an attractive southern gateway to the city of Dayton) began with a $13 million renovation to the University of Dayton Arena, completed in 2002. Since then, the University has added a running track, the Jerry Von Mohr Football Practice Field, Time Warner Cable Stadium for baseball and a softball stadium that was completed for the 2005 season. The next ingredient will be the "Courtyard by Marriott at the University of Dayton" that will open January 2007. Along with the hotel, future plans include a restaurant, a multi-use field and — farther down the Great Miami River — a boathouse for the rowing team.

The Arena Sports Complex is the most visible of the upgrades, but every locker room in the Frericks Center has also been renovated, along with impressive venue upgrades for soccer and volleyball.

ADMINISTRATION

The new and upgraded facilities have been accomplished through effective fundraising. Under Kissell's leadership, the Athletics Division has raised over $30 million for capital projects during the decade. A native of Chicago, Kissell holds two history degrees - a B.A. from Elmhurst College in 1969 and an M.A. from Northern Illinois University in 1972. Ted's family includes his wife Deanna, four children - Ted Jr., Jennifer, Sarah and Katie, and one grandson, Teo.

His committee work also extends to service to the University community. He currently serves on UD's Campus Master Planning Committee. Wabler is also an NCAA Peer Reviewer and a member of the Greater Dayton YMCA's Board of Trustees. A 1974 graduate of UD's School of Business Administration, Wabler has also completed the Sports Management Institute Executive Program. A former member of UD's Athletic Board, Wabler was a four-year letterwinner and three-time Pitcher of the Year for UD. He served as team captain as a senior. Tim and his wife Arlene have two daughters, Sarah and Leigh Anne.

TIM WABLER

Associate Vice President for Athletics

A former Flyer student-athlete himself, Tim Wabler joined the University of Dayton Athletics Division as an administrator in 1993. As UD's Associate Vice-President for Athletics, Wabler's primary duties include the administration of all of UD's sports programs and support services.

In the last decade Wabler has been part of the Dayton Athletics Division, the Flyers have experienced significantly improved competitive success. In the last nine years, UD has had 23 conference championships and 17 teams reach the post-season. In the nine years prior to that, the Flyers only had seven conference championships and one tournament appearance.

The highlights include two fourth-place finishes in the Atlantic 10 Commissioner's Cup (all-sport) standings in the last five years. In 2003-04, three Flyer teams advanced to the NCAA tournament in the same school year, the very first time that happened in UD history. Women's soccer won the A-10 Championship seven years in a row and has advanced to NCAA play five of the past seven years. Men's basketball has averaged more than 20 wins a season over the last seven years. The volleyball team earned its first NCAA bid in 2003 by winning the A-10 Tournament, and returned to the tournament with conferences title in 2004 and 2005. Men's cross country has won the cross country-only national championship the last two times it has entered the meet. The baseball team's record for wins in a season was 25 after the 2000 campaign, and since then UD has won at least 30 games four times. And the Flyer football team has won the Pioneer Football League championship eight times in the 13-year history of the league.

As success on the field has improved, UD student-athletes have also performed in the classroom. The Flyers' combined cumulative grade point average has risen to be above 3.0. UD has had 26 Academic All-Americans in the last six years. Only Nebraska, Rensselaer Poly and Rice had more. The Flyers had three Arthur Ashe Scholar-Athletes in 2005-06, the most in school history. Dayton is consistently among the league leaders in placing student-athletes on the Atlantic 10 Commissioner's Honor Roll, even though the Flyers participate in fewer A-10 sports than all but one school. UD had the most players on the PFL Academic Honor Roll for the fifth straight year in 2005.

Wabler managed the implementation of a gender equity plan that provides men and women student-athletes with equitable opportunities in line with the university's general population. A U.S. News & World Report ranks UD in the top 15 in Division I gender equity. Additionally, the Athletics Division has worked with the University to implement an aggressive program to increase minority opportunities for student-athletes.

Wabler is overseeing the Athletics' Division efforts to provide top-notch facilities for the next generation of Flyer student-athletes with the creation of the Arena Sports Complex. Development of the Arena Sports Complex began with a $13 million renovation to the University of Dayton Arena, completed in 2002. Since then, the University has added a running track, the Jerry Von Mohr Football Practice Field, Time Warner Cable Stadium for baseball and a new softball stadium. The next ingredient will be the Courtyard by Marriott at the University of Dayton that will open during the 2006-07 school year. Along with the hotel, future plans include a restaurant, a multi-use field and farther down the Great Miami River, a boathouse for the rowing team.

Early in Wabler's tenure, the Athletics Division built the $4.3 million Donoher Basketball Center, an addition to the UD Arena, to provide new facilities for men's and women's basketball and football. The entire facility, which was dedicated in June of 1998, was conceived, planned and completed in 20 months time. In those 20 months, the entire S4.3 million cost was paid for by charitable gifts to the University. On campus, renovations to Baujan Field (soccer) and the Frericks Center (volleyball) have improved those facilities to among the best in the Midwest.

Including the Arena Seating Plan, gifts to Athletics total over $4.0 million annually. Wabler, a Dayton native, is in charge of all coaches' contracts for the Athletics Division, and manages radio and TV agreements. Wabler is also the administrator who oversees UD's athletic fund-raising efforts and long-term finances. Radio and television agreements have been expanded to increase exposure for Flyer athletics. On average, more than 30 UD athletic contests a year are televised. Dayton football, basketball, soccer, volleyball, baseball and softball games are heard internationally on the World Wide Web. UD football, men's basketball and women's basketball games are also broadcast on News/Talk 1290 WHIO.

Wabler has been actively involved in numerous A-10 Conference committees, including the Championships Review Committee, Baseball Committee and Soccer Committee.

CINDY HARTMANN

Associate Director of Athletics/Senior Woman

Cindy Hartmann, a member of the University of Dayton athletics staff for the past eight years, serves as associate director of athletics and senior woman administrator. Hartmann has been instrumental in advancing a compliance program which combines the training and education of coaches, staff, studentathletes, and boosters with the review and modification of athletics division and university operating procedures to insure compliance with those rules. She is responsible for the management of the office of academic services for student-athletes and has direct oversight of the life skills program. During her tenure, the Flyers' combined cumulative grade point average has risen to be above 3.0. In addition, UD has had 26 Academic All-Americans in the last six years. Hartmann also manages UD's National Letter of Intent program along with allocation and distribution of athletic grant-in-aid, and serves as sports program administrator for women's basketball, volleyball, softball and women's soccer.

In June 2002, Hartmann was selected to the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Committee where she recently finished serving her four-year appointment. She is also a member of the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletic Administrators. Hartman has served on various sport program committees for the Atlantic 10 Conference office and has been the senior woman administrator representative on several standing committees including Finance and Television. She currently serves on the University of Dayton Inclusion and Diversity Council and on the A-10 Championships and Equity Committee. In 2001-02, she served as a representative to the NCAA Academic/Eligibility/Compliance Cabinet.

Before coming to Dayton, Hartmann worked at the University of Connecticut, where she served as compliance coordinator from 1996-1998. Prior to that, she was assistant compliance coordinator for one year. Hartmann served as sports information director at Georgia Perimeter College (known then as DeKalb College) for the 1994-95 school year. Hartmann has a Masters in Education-Sports Administration from Georgia State University and a Bachelor of Science degree in communication/photojournalism from Syracuse University. She was a four-year backetball letterwinner for the Orangewomen. Cindy and her husband, Troy, reside in Springboro, Ohio, with their two children, Samuel and Olivia.

MICHAEL O'HARE

Faculty Athletics Representative

Dr. Michael O'Hare, Professor of Physics and Professor of Electro-Optics, was named faculty representative to the NCAA in 1998. Dr. O'Hare has been in the Department of Physics at the University of Dayton since 1966 and has served as chair of the department since 1983. Dr. O'Hare has taught physics at all levels and has research experience in atomic, molecular, solid-state and optical physics.

He has served as a consultant and visiting scientist to the Wright-Patterson Air Force Materials Laboratory. Most recently, Dr. O'Hare was a co-principal investigator on a NASA sponsored NOVA grant to design curricula for developing scientific literacy in preservice teachers.

Dr. O'Hare's duties as faculty representative to the NCAA include: taking an active role in the institutional control of the intercollegiate athletics program; representing a faculty viewpoint and faculty oversight and advice in the administration of the athletics program; involvement in the assurance of academic integrity of the athletics program and the maintenance of the welfare of the student-athletes; and monitoring of performance of the student-athletes.

Dr. O'Hare and his late wife, Patricia, have four daughters, all of whom graduated from the University of Dayton.

ACADEMIC SERVICES

Academic Services for Student-Athletes at the University of Dayton promotes a total person concept to the student-athletes, a concept that stresses the student-athletes' abilities to excel in athletic competition, attain academic achievement and develop positive character traits that will be of sustaining value to the individual and society.

Athletic accomplishments do not come at the expense of academic performance at UD. In 2003, the University of Dayton was ranked No. 8 nationally in NCAA graduation rates of the over 300 NCAA Division I institutions. This is a tremendous accomplishment and exhibits the continuing importance placed upon academic success at Dayton.

As success on the field has improved, UD student-athletes have also performed in the classroom. The Flyers' combined cumulative grade point average has steadily risen to be higher than the GPA of the general student body. UD has had 26 Academic All-Americans in the last six years. Only Nebraska, Rensselaer Poly and Rice had more. The Flyers had three Arthur Ashe Scholar-Athletes in 2005-06, the most in school history. Dayton is consistently among the league leaders in placing student-athletes on the Atlantic 10 Commissioner's Honor Roll, even though the Flyers participate in fewer A-10 sports than all but one school. UD had the most players on the PFL Academic Honor Roll for the fifth straight year in 2005.

The mission of the Division of Intercollegiate Athletics at the University of Dayton reflects the mission of the University by using the laboratory of fields of play and arenas of competition to educate young people to "LEARN, LEAD AND SERVE."

That mission is embodied in the following core purposes:

To educate the total person by integrating the primary academic purposes with educational possibilities and opportunities for young people beyond the classroom;

To teach the value of community and family through collaboration and teamwork;

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

State-of-the-art conditioning centers, fully-equipped training rooms and full-time professionals combine to create a program for student-athletes that give them a physical edge over the competition. Each UD team has a plan designed and administered by qualified professionals to meet the specific needs of their sport and style of play. All student-athletes perform basic strength training with a general emphasis on explosive lifts that involve as much of the body as possible. Conditioning programs are designed to prepare student-athletes for the specific metabolic demands of their sport. Core training, agility work and sport specific exercises are then incorporated into each program to prepare each student-athlete for competitive success.

The UD strength and conditioning coaches work with our sports medicine staff to help reduce the risk of injuries and to efficiently return student-athletes to competition as quickly and as safely as possible following injury. With four staff members holding the Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) credential, UD stays current on the latest research to insure that our programs are among the best in the country. In addition, the UD strength and conditioning staff can provide assistance in eating strategies that will improve the health and competitiveness of UD student-athletes. ### SPORTS MEDICINE STAFF

At the University of Dayton, the health and well being of our student-athletes is a primary concern. We strive to prevent injuries through pre-participation physical examinations, well-designed conditioning programs, warm-ups, proper practice planning, and appropriate equipment selection. When an athletic injury occurs, our goal is to provide the best medical care possible from the initial first-aid to the follow-up care and rehabilitation.

FACILITIES

There are two Athletic Training Rooms in operation at the University of Dayton. The Arena Training Room is located in the Donoher Basketball Center and utilized by Arena Complex teams for practices and games. The Frericks Center training room is open year round and is utilized for treatment and rehabilitation to all sports in the mornings and serves those sports that operate out of the Frericks Center in the afternoon.

STAFF

The University of Dayton Sports Medicine Staff consists of a team of Family Practice Physicians and Orthopedic Consultants and four full-time and two graduate assistant certified and licensed Athletic Trainers. In particular instances the Head Team Physician may refer athletes to other physicians or specialists. However, the Head Team Physician supervises the status of all athletes referred to other physicians or specialists and has the final authority with regard to all medical disqualifications, treatment, and return to play. Referrals to specialists will be made through the Team Physicians or Athletic Trainers only.

Trained personnel are present at all home athletic contests and, where possible, at all practices to insure prompt medical attention. The Sports Medicine Staff works closely with the coaching staff to keep them informed regarding the medical status of the athletes.
